

NEWS DIGEST n°127

2nd Quarter 2022

President
Adrian HARRIS

General Secretary
Danièle VRANKEN

President's Editorial

"For me, our annual General Assembly is one of the signs that summer is around the corner. This past year has seen a creeping return to normality, with associations once again fulfilling their full objective which includes meetings of members. This is essential; nevertheless, it may be difficult to go "back to normal" as many people have got into the habit of working from home for a couple of days a week; so, I expect we will see virtual or mixed meetings continue, while at the same time associations revive team-building events for their own staff....]"
